

Labycare-Blood Bank Refrigerator (cat #SKSS383)

Blood Bank Refrigerator Manufacturer by LABYCARE

Description :

A Blood Bank Refrigerator is a specialized refrigeration unit designed to safely store blood and blood components at a controlled temperature between +2°C to +6°C. It ensures consistent cooling, uniform temperature distribution, and reliable preservation. Equipped with digital temperature control, alarm systems, and safety locks, it's ideal for hospitals, laboratories, and blood banks to maintain the integrity and quality of blood products.

Specifications :

—

Refrigerant
Compliance
Exterior Material:
Shelving Material
Temperature Range
Interior Material
Alarm Types
Cooling System
Temperature Uniformity
Controller Type
Data Logging
Capacity: