

Labycare-Washbottle (SKSS-SE09)

Washbottle

Description :

A wash bottle is a flexible plastic container used in laboratories to dispense distilled water or solvents for rinsing glassware and adding small quantities of liquid. It features a squeeze body and a bent nozzle for controlled flow, ensuring precise cleaning and safe handling of chemicals during experiments.