

Labycare-Permanent Slide (SKSS-SE013)

Permanent Slide

Description :

A permanent slide is a prepared microscope slide containing a preserved specimen mounted with a suitable medium and sealed for long-term study. It is widely used in biology and medical laboratories for observation and teaching. The specimen remains intact, allowing repeated examination without degradation over extended periods.