

Labycare-Human Torso (SKSS-SE015)

Human Torso

Description :

A human torso model is an anatomical teaching aid used to study the structure of the human body. It displays internal organs such as the heart, lungs, liver, and intestines. Commonly used in schools, colleges, and medical training, it helps in visual learning and understanding human anatomy clearly.

labycare

www.labycare.com | Email: labycare@gmail.com