

Labycare-Life Size Disarticulated Skeleton with Skull with Painted Model (SKSS-SE052)

Life Size Disarticulated Skeleton with Skull with Painted Model

Description :

Life Size Disarticulated Skeleton with Skull is an anatomical teaching model showing individual human bones separately. The bones are painted and labeled for easy identification. It is widely used in medical and educational institutions to study human skeletal structure, bone identification, and anatomical details with clarity and accuracy.

Specifications :

Type: Human skeletal model (disarticulated)
Size: Life size (approx. 170–180 cm when assembled)
Material: High-quality PVC/plastic
Skull: Included, detachable
Structure: Individual bones, not jointed
Finish: Painted and labeled for identification
Mounting: Supplied in storage box/case
Application: Medical education, anatomy study
Features: Detailed, durable, lightweight, easy to handle

labycare

www.labycare.com | Email: labycare@gmail.com