

Labycare-social science (SKSS-SE066)

social science

Description :

Social studies is a subject that explores human society, history, geography, economics, and civics. It helps students understand cultural diversity, governance, and social relationships. The subject develops critical thinking, awareness of the world, and responsible citizenship by connecting past events with present situations and encouraging informed decision-making in everyday life.

labycare

www.labycare.com | Email: labycare@gmail.com