

Labycare-Geography (SKSS-SE065)

Geography

Description :

Geography is the study of the Earth's surface, environments, and human interactions with nature. It examines landforms, climate, resources, population, and spatial patterns. The subject helps students understand physical features and human activities, promoting awareness of environmental issues, global connections, and sustainable use of natural resources in different regions worldwide.

labycare

www.labycare.com | Email: labycare@gmail.com